TAIPEI TIMES . SUNDAY, MARCH 14, 2010

Lee calls for deepening democracy

REFORM NEEDED: The former president said no progress had been made since 2000 because the two political camps had been engaged in virulent partisan competition with the stated aim of deepening well-being. democracy in the country, which ogy and partisan warfare.

BY KO SHU-LING

STAFF REPORTER

mocracy Association (李登輝民主協 makes perfect sense for a master opted a hands-off approach in ing development. *) was established to point out the to change his servant if he cannot managing China-bound investment flaws of the government and speak do his job properly." out for the people.

said the nation desperately needed a new wave of reform to deepen its democracy. Such reform initiatives should cover the areas of democracy, politics, education, the judiciary and spirit, he said.

with the help of the people.

Although Taiwan saw two trans- Making his case in Taiwanese a major problem.

the two changes of government the global economy was in crisis, said.

in reality the two political camps complex issue of Taiwan's state-登輝) yesterday introduced a new tisan competition at the expense handle political matters rationally he said. political association to the public, of national interest and public and be tolerant of different ideolo-

"People must vote the governhe said had fallen victim to ideol- ment out of power if it does a economic policy, Lee said it not over the government's China-Lee said the Lee Teng-hui De- real masters of the country and it ployment problem, but also ad- not afford to ignore such a disturb-

Bemoaning the fact that no prog-reach out to the opposition and seek ress has been made since 2000, Lee consensus on national identity. As it sincerity following its recent he said.

healthier and more mature, but will take a long time to resolve the agreement (ECFA). gies and political positions.

bad job," he said. "People are the only failed to address the unem-friendly policy, saying Tokyo could and appeared not to care about the pan, the US and China plays a sig-Lee urged the government to hardships the public is facing.

promises to help Taiwan sign free-trade agreements with other countries if Taipei signs an economic cooperation framework

"It never means what it says and Former president Lee Teng-hui (**parabeta have been engaged in virulent parabood, he also urged politicians to will lie if that serves its purposes,"

> Tadae Takubo, vice chairman of Friends of the Lee Teng-hui Associ-Criticizing the government's ation in Japan, expressed concern

"Taiwan's attitude toward Janificant role in the shifting military Lee also questioned China's balance in the Asia-Pacific region,"

Former president Lee Teng-hui speaks at the introduction of a new political association to the public in Taipei yesterday.

Taiwan needs ECFA with China, Siew says

STAFF WRITER, WITH CNA

During his 12-year presidency, Vice President Vincent Siew (# Lee said his policy was to trans- 萬長) said on Friday that Taiwan cope with these challenges, he form the country from an authori- needed to sign a trade pact with said. tarian state to a democracy and he China, but added that the governwas glad that goal was achieved ment would not open its doors too wan has many challenges to over- and exports will grow, he said. wide to China.

fers of power in 2000 and 2008, Lee at a forum on a proposed eco-innovate domestically, and it needs opportunity," he added. said moral decline and cultural ret-nomic cooperation framework markets abroad. rogression since then has become agreement (ECFA) with China at have made Taiwan's democracy Taiwan felt its impact. Given that years, Taiwan must find ways to marginalized," he said.

come: its national competitiveness must be enhanced, it must actively the nation, and we must seize the property rights.

National Cheng Kung University mies continue to integrate, Taiwan negotiating the trade pact. Lee said many people believe in Tainan, Siew said that when cannot be left on the outside, Siew these crises occur about every 10 with China. Otherwise, it will be said, adding that "we will solicit ment would try its best to ex-

China, investment and employ- the future." In dealing with the crisis, Tai- ment opportunities will increase,

"Taiwan will start with the "Taiwan needs to sign an ECFA gradually move on to others," Siew sectors, and he said the govern-said.

He said that Taiwan's goal was Furthermore, as Asian econo- its doors too wide to China while tural products or opening the door nomic officials said. to Chinese workers," he said.

the maximum benefit, and we hope clude those sectors in the ECFA If Taiwan signs an ECFA with to minimize the pressure on us in negotiations or put them off to a

Meanwhile, the second round tariff concessions and the protec- of talks on the ECFA, which Tai-"This is a crucial moment for tion of investments and intellectual wan had originally hoped would take place in Taipei some time this "Taiwan will also insist on not month, are now most likely to be He said Taiwan would not open allowing in more Chinese agricul- held at the end of the month, eco-

The focus of the second round Siew acknowledged that the of negotiations will be the exitems it needs the most and then ECFA would not benefit some change of "early harvest" lists, they

US asks Taiwan to cancel Haiti's US$95m debt

BY WILLIAM LOWTHER AND SHIH HSIU-CHUAN

CC Manage harrowed

QUICK TAKE

MEDIA

MOFA protests designation

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA) yesterday said it had asked its representative office in Washington to lodge a protest against a US magazine for referring to first lady Chow Mei-ching (周美青) as the "first lady of China (Taiwan)" in its photo caption. The ministry will also demand a correction. MOFA spokesman Henry Chen (陳銘政) said. Hopefully, the magazine will correct the error in a day or two, he added. The US magazine, Washington Life, published a photograph of Chow taken with members of the Cloud Gate Dance Theatre (雲門舞集) when she accompanied the company on a North American tour in January. She was referred to as the "first lady of China (Taiwan)" in the caption. Next to Chow's photograph was Chinese Ambassador to the US Zhou Wenzhong (周 文重), who was identified as the envoy from the "People's Republic of China."

- NATIONALITY Nearly 10,000 naturalized

The nation added 9,853 naturalized citizens last year, with more than threequarters coming from Vietnam, Ministry of the Interior data showed. The ministry said 98.09 percent of the new citizens were female, 98.62 percent were from Southeast Asia and 97.2 percent obtained Republic of China (ROC) passports through marriage. A breakdown of the origins of the newly naturalized showed that 76.7 percent came from Vietnam, 11 percent from Indonesia